

What is the Roman Missal? Why a new Translation?

When Catholics gather to celebrate the Eucharist, we pray together through fixed or standard prayers. These are contained in the Roman Missal. It is the large, red book that is brought to the priest when he stands at the chair. It is also placed on the altar during the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The Roman Missal contains the Order of Mass, or the way we celebrate Eucharist, with all its accompanying prayer texts and responses.

During the Jubilee Year 2000, Blessed John Paul II issued a 3rd Edition of the Roman Missal that was first issued by Pope Paul VI. Presented to the Church in Latin, it is being translated into many different languages for use around the world. The method employed for translating the Roman Missal has changed since the 1st and 2nd Editions were translated. In 2002, the Holy See requested that the translation mirror the original Latin text as closely as possible. As a result, many of the newly translated responses in the English language will be slightly different from the ones we know by heart. The English translation for use in Canada will be implemented on the First Sunday of Advent 2011. In September, we will begin to introduce these new translations. Further reflection on the parts of the Mass and the meaning of the texts will occur from January to June 2012.

Salesian Family Saints Young Polish Martyrs

Edward Klinik (23), Francis Kesi (22), Jarogniew Wojciechowski (20), Czeslaw Jozwiak (22), and Edward Kazmierski (23) lived in Poznan, Poland.

These five young men attended the Salesian oratory there. They were tirelessly engaged in their own spiritual advancement and extended their efforts to the spiritual progress of their companions. They were close friends, with the same social purposes, and were arrested practically at the same time. Together they shared prison life. Together they underwent martyrdom on August 24, 1942 when they were beheaded in the prison yard.

Before they died they were able to write to their parents. Here are the words written by Francis: “My dearest parents, brothers and sisters, the time has come to say goodbye to you on August 24, the day of Mary Help of Christians ... May the Good Lord take me to himself. Don’t have regrets that I am leaving this world so young. I am now in a state of grace. ... I am going to heaven. There I shall pray to God ... Pray sometimes for me ... I’m going now.” They were taken into the prison yard in Dresden and beheaded. The monthly commemoration of Mary Help of Christians was being celebrated in our communities on that day.

The young men were trained by the Salesians, involved in apostolic charity, followed their educators to martyrdom and were raised with them to the honours of the altar.

Declared blessed by Pope John Paul II on June 12, 1999.
Liturgical celebration: June 12th.

THE TEOPOLI SUMMER EXPERIENCE
TEOPOLI CATHOLIC SPIRITUAL CENTER
GRAVENHURST, ONTARIO

TEOPOLI is not a summer camp, and it is not just a place of recreation for youth. TEOPOLI is a way of life for children and teenagers, 6 to 16 years of age! TEOPOLI has been providing young people and their families an environment where the values of family life are taught and experienced. Young people are encouraged to be responsible and independent through information about their Catholic faith, while enjoying themselves in many recreational activities in the secure and tranquil atmosphere of TEOPOLI Catholic Spiritual Center, located in the beautiful Muskoka area. TEOPOLI itself boasts grand evergreens, a lake, river, waterfall, and meadows, all providing a deeply formative experience in a spiritual and recreational setting.

TEOPOLI is not a day program. Participants live at TEOPOLI for a 12-day period. The TEOPOLI Summer Experience also provides a qualified staff that endeavors to present contemporary social and spiritual issues to the young people in order to address the values and virtues necessary for a good and wholesome life. This is a demanding work at TEOPOLI, but it is accomplished among the activities of swimming, canoeing, arts & crafts, sports, music, culture, drama, theology, daily Holy Mass and rosary. The young people will make new friends, experience new patterns of good behavior and come to appreciate and enjoy the friendship and supervision of the councilors, as well as the supportive staff.

The summer memories of TEOPOLI will last a lifetime! For further information for parents and guardians, and for an application, please call Joe Colalillo at the office of Società Unita/The United Society, the mission that owns and operates TEOPOLI, 416-243-7319.
