

The New Translation

When and How will it be Introduced?

Parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto will begin to use the new translation of the Roman Missal on the weekend of November 27. Joining us in this journey will be Catholics in all parishes throughout Canada and the United States. Beginning this weekend, parishes in the Archdiocese of Toronto will begin to learn more about the new translation. You will notice many changes in the words that the celebrant (priest) uses when he celebrates Mass. There are also a few changes to the words that the congregation will use when they respond, also referred to as the "people's parts". We will also introduce new musical compositions as part of the sung Mass settings (Lord of Mercy, Gloria, Holy Holy, Lamb of God, etc.) It will take some time to get used to these changes – please pray that we will all make the most out of this opportunity to grow as a faith community.

Looking at the text: And with your Spirit

One of the first things we will notice with the new translation is that, when the priest says 'The Lord be with you', we now say 'And with your spirit' instead of "And also with you." The new response is much closer to the original Latin. When the Mass was first translated into English we were one of only two languages that did not translate it as 'your spirit'. It is a very biblical response: Paul concludes four of his letters with a very similar expression. For example, at the end of his Second Letter to Timothy, Paul ends by saying, 'The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you'.

If you think about it, for nearly 2000 years Christians have been greeting each other, 'The Lord be with you', 'and with your spirit.' So the new translation will bring unity to this response in all the languages of the world - and with all previous Christian generations. FAITH CONNECTIONS: THEOLOGY ON TAP

The Wonderful Imperfect in All of Us

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 7:00-9:00PM

Special guest: Fr. Philip Chircop, S.J. We've been told often to strive for perfection. We were encouraged to work very hard, do the right things, and all will be well. And when something went wrong, we were reminded that God writes straight with our crooked lines! What if life is more about being real and authentic and therefore embracing all that is imperfect in us and our stories? Join us for an evening of thought-provoking conversation on theological topics! Munchies provided, cash bar available - come & bring a friend! ~ At the Duke of York Pub, 39 Prince Arthur Ave, Toronto (Bloor St. W. & Avenue Rd.)
