Archbishop Thomas Collins on National TV: Join the live Studio Audience

On Monday, November 19 Archbishop Thomas Collins will appear on our national TV show, Context with Lorna Dueck, at the CBC Broadcast Centre in downtown Toronto. Our host, Lorna Dueck, will be talking to Archbishop Collins about faith and culture in Canada, the state of the Church, his personal story and what it's like to advise Pope Benedict. Collins leads Canada's largest diocese, home to 1.9 million Catholics in the Greater Toronto Area. His work keeps him close to the local church while jet-setting to Rome to serve as one of the Pope's trusted Canadian advisors. Tech-savvy Collins is also a Cardinal who tweets.

JOIN OUR LIVE STUDIO AUDIENCE AT CBC BROADCAST CENTRE, in the famous Studio 42 (Home of Hockey Night in Canada). Audience members can share their opinions and ask questions. To get tickets, simply email tickets@contextwithlorna.com with your name and number of tickets.

The liturgical year ends with the feast of Christ the King on the last Sunday of November and the new church year begins with Advent. You'll need a new missal for the start of Advent: December 1 & 2.

The Sunday Missal is intended to be a tool used at home for preparing for the weekly Sunday Mass. Parishioners are encouraged to purchase a copy of the missal for themselves for use during personal prayer time during the week by reading and reflecting on the gospel and readings for the upcoming Sunday. This prayer style better prepares us to listen to God's Word as it is proclaimed on Sunday.
