Praying for Salesians in Formation

Please keep in prayer

Br. Eduardo A. Chinchá

I have been a Salesian for 2 years. I am currently in the stage called practical training so I am teaching religion to 9th and 11th graders in Salesian High School in New Rochelle. I enjoy very much my life as it is right now. I feel blessed to be where God has decided to place me.

I wake up every day excited to be teaching and having a positive impact on kids. I also come back tired in the afternoon, with a lot of papers, quizzes, projects and tests to make and grade. Believe me, I have never been so happy to be tired in this particular way. I also live in a community of 6 confreres, who give me a hand whenever I need it, especially when it comes to advice on how to face different issues of classroom management and grading. I hope to continue to grow as a Salesian, a teacher, minister to the young, and above all to continue to grow in the vocation that God has given me.
